 PO Box 482, Beaver Dam, WI 53916

Rotary meeting Jan 5th, 2009

We were joined by 7 representatives of the various organizations we are donating to this year. They all stood up and gave a short talk about who they were and thanked Rotary for the donation. Jack Hanks represented Green Valley Enterprises, a human services agency. Kathy Stippich came from NAMI which stands for National Alliance of the Mentally Ill. They provide support for those struggling with mental illness and their families. Kathy Bates who is the co-chairperson of the Dementia Coalition of Dodge County talked about how they assist individuals and families who are affected by dementia. Jill Cullen represented the WBEV/WXRO radiothon. All the money they raise stays in Dodge County and goes to different organizations like PAVE, Clothes for Kids and the Teen Center. Sue Cox from Clothes for Kids shared that they provided 1200 students with new shoes and school supplies this year and next year they want to buy 1500 pairs of shoes. Kim Waugus of the Dodge County Humane Society talked about the benefits of their new building and how they are looking towards focusing on more educational offerings. Bev Beal-Loeck who is the director of Church Health Services talked about the three branches of their organization. They are the monthly clinic which provides health care for those without insurance, the congregational health programs and the health message for all, which says we should all be responsible for our own health first and then do what you can to spread that on to others.
